

GINZA MARKETPLACE

Arise - Window to the East Arise Bazaar from Takoma Park is back! Check out their large inventory of Japanese kimono, textiles, accessories, ceramics and other artifacts.

Capitol Teaze and Herbs Specializes in organic Japanese teas, as well as teas and herbs from other countries. Sample the teas and see demonstrations of the new Teaze infuser.

Dreamworld Dreamworld, from Burke VA, is a newcomer to the Sakura Matsuri this year. They will display origami artwork, Japanese dolls, and other items.

Fired Up Dichroic Designs & Julie B's Jewels
From Tyrone PA, provides beautiful hand-worked cherry-blossom inspired jewelry in layered glass and chiyogami paper.

Greentea Design Inc. Greentea Design, from Potomac is selling a variety of calligraphy artwork pieces, including wall scrolls and fans, and other Japanese items.

Greeting Life America-Kyoohoo Specializes in Japanese-inspired greeting cards and stationery, in both classic and contemporary styles.

Jeesuk Oh Beads Art Studio Has flower motif handmade jewelry, corsages, silk flowers, and hair pins. Demonstrates the materials and techniques for making Japanese style beaded jewelry, corsages, and silk flowers.

J Flair Homestyles JFlair Homestyles carries traditional and modern Japanese gifts, as well as resources to make your own crafts.

Kiteya Kiteya has a range of Japanese fashions and accessories in both traditional and contemporary designs.

Kyoto Kimono Offers vintage kimono robes and jackets for men, women and children, as well as obi sashes, fabric bundles, and dozens of gifts made from vintage kimono fabrics: totebags, purses, scarves, greeting cards, and more!

National Cherry Blossom Festival Visit the NCBF booth to buy the official National Cherry Blossom Festival merchandise.

Sarah Pei's Paintings & Pearls Has pearl jewelry, Asian art, and paintings in themes of cherry blossoms, calligraphy and landscapes, all framed with silk.

Washington Redskins Come and support your favorite football team! On display are Washington Redskins jerseys, footballs, and other paraphernalia.

YokoDana: Vintage Kimono, Fabrics & More YokoDana Vintage Kimono, Fabrics & More offers fine vintage Japanese silk kimono as well as vintage kimono fabrics and hand-made items.

J-POP

Thanks to McDonald's for sponsoring the J-POP Stage again this year!! Check out the performance schedule on pages 8-9. And then be sure to visit with the J-Pop vendors.

Anime Gift Look to Anime Gift for anime inspired products and Japanese traditional goods.

I Heart Guts! Supercute kawaii-inspired stuffed hearts, brains, spleens and more at I Heart Guts! Happy internal organ character plush, tees, pins and more for doctors-in- training or anatomy fans.

Japanese-American Student Union Visit with members of the Japanese student community here in DC for a personal perspective on the recent events in Japan. JASU is fund-raising for the relief effort.

Kawaii Gifts Offers cute character and fancy goods from Japanese brands, like San-X, Kamio, Q-Lia, Sanrio, and more! Goods include plush toys, stationery, key chain and accessories.

Modondi Specializes in creating Japanese-inspired apparel and accessories.

Kawaii Boutique Kawaii Boutique is exhibiting anime and Japanese contemporary fashion, culture and accessories. Look for anime, lolita style cellphone charms, small gifts, jewelry and more!

SG Imports Signature Imports is returning to the festival with a variety of imported toys.

Spicy Brown Look for Spicy Brown's collection of original Japanese characters on a variety of t-shirts and accessories, including such interesting characters as Tofu Robot, Kokeshi Ink and Sushi Neko.

T-Mode An annual anime and manga convention, T-Mode is ready to display and discuss the importance of Japanese youth culture.